

FOOD & BEVERAGE

Farm to table isn't just for fine dining; it's everyday life in Greater Portland. Companies here have access to the freshest produce, meat and fish. This proximity to the very best ingredients – along with a healthy dose of creativity – has built our region's world-renowned reputation for great food and drink.

Our industry strengths

SPECIALIZED WORKFORCE & SUPPLIERS

A wealth of industry-specific certificate programs help train a uniquely talented workforce in high-volume specialty food production. Greater Portland has a top-notch local supplier ecosystem of manufacturers making blades, sorters and fermentation tanks.

ABUNDANT NATURAL RESOURCES

Greater Portland offers a mild climate and long growing season, as well as plentiful natural resources, which provide abundant clean water and low-cost reliable power.

ENTREPRENEUR SUPPORT

Resources include industry-specific workshops, business advising and food-focused incubators and accelerators. Farmers markets and food carts, prevalent throughout the region, provide fertile testing grounds for entrepreneurs, and OSU's Food Innovation Center helps develop and bring new products to market.
